

Objection Handler #40

I Have To Keep My Promise To The Agent I Originally Bought The Home With.

(Their name), I can appreciate you like the agent that helped you buy your home, but the problem with that agent is he/she is a buyer's agent. I am a listing agent, all I do is list and find buyers for my client's homes. How can I get you the highest price possible for your home if I am out all day with buyers? I couldn't, right?
